PRESS RELEASE

Date: 1/26/2026
Incident: Sunrail vs Vehicle
Location: Holden Avenue west of S. Orange Avenue
Case Number: ED26000043
HSMV Report: 27145096

On 1/26/2026, at approximately 1759 hours, a vehicle traveling east on Holden Avenue stopped on the railroad tracks in violation of F.S.S. 316.1575. SunRail train #P333 was southbound approaching Holden Avenue.

The rail crossing lights and warnings activated and the crossing gates began to close. The crossing gate for eastbound traffic came to rest on the vehicle. The train collided with the vehicle on the driver's side. The driver of the vehicle sustained injuries and was transported to Orlando Regional Medical Center by Orange County Fire Rescue.

The driver of the vehicle was found to be at fault for the crash.

The scene was cleared by 2100 hours.

F.S.S. 316.066 makes crash reports confidential for 60 days following the crash, accessible only to involved parties, their insurers, or legal counsel during this time.
